

EDU Niche Provides an All-Inclusive Online Tutoring Platform

The newly launched online teaching forum offers a 30 minute free tutoring session to all new students.

Fort Worth, Texas (PRWEB) April 07, 2014 -- The recent launch of EDU Niche has created a buzz among students who have been looking for academic assistance. The website is designed to provide students with professional tutoring facilities. Even though the website aims at facilitating students in need with certified professional help, the tuition fee structure is extremely affordable.

Heather Sarin, the spokesman of EDU Niche said, “I feel proud to present this online teaching website to students in need. The launching of EDU Niche was an initiative to take internet-based education to the next level. The online platform has gathered extremely competent and certified teachers under one banner to provide students with every kind of academic assistance. From science to business, students can find the best professional help on every subject.”

The site has been launched to save the time and money of students that gets wasted in finding tutors. “For instance, if a student needs to submit an urgent assignment and needs a helping hand, we are here to help at any hour,” added Heather Sarin.

Highlighting benefits about the free tutoring session Heather Sarin said, “As a part of our launch, we offer every student a 30 minute free session of professional tutoring. This will not only give students an idea about our services, but students can also learn about various online tutors and their expertise. Depending on their need, students are at the liberty to choose a tutor from our devoted staff.”

“From homework help to test preparations, students can find all kinds of academic assistance on the online teaching forum. The website is designed to provide students with a virtual environment of classroom. The certified and experienced panel of teachers can handle all kinds of academic projects. We hope that the instant tutoring forum can help those students who can’t afford private and expensive tutoring sessions,” said Heather Sarin, the spokesman of EDU Niche.

The website not only provides students an opportunity to find a tutor, but also provides a platform for competent and educated teachers to pursue their career. Students have full access to the database of tutors and can select the tutor whose credentials are the best fit. Moreover, the website also has interactive tools for students like whiteboard. Students can write on the whiteboard and upload their assignments, projects, and documents in real-time.

“Keeping in view the importance of effective communication between teachers and students, we provide the facility of live audio and videoconferencing for students. They can have live conversation sessions with their tutors and to discuss their problems. We believe that successful communication plays a key role in grooming the academic skills of students,” said Heather Sarin.

The online teaching platform has combined technology with competence to facilitate students with quality distance learning. For information about fees or sign up procedure, students can simply visit the official website of EDU Niche.
